

“They Take Our Jobs!”

Twenty Myths About Immigration

Aviva Chomsky
Professor of History
Salem State College

Monday,
February 22, 2010
11:00AM
MLK Room
Ellison Campus Center
Salem State College

Avi Chomsky earned her PhD from the University of California Berkeley specializing in Latin American history. In teaching history through the years, she has followed the controversial issue of immigration and is now speaking out. Her book “They Take Our Jobs!:" Twenty Myths About Immigration strives to clarify this complex issue with facts and historical perspective.

Sponsored by the Salem State College Peace Institute & Students of Salem (SOS) for Peace

www.archive.salemstate.edu/peaceinstitute/chomsky